Women of Excellence

The Women's Leadership Collaborative (WLC) of Greenwood, SC pleased to announce the 2024 "Women of Excellence" Awards. These awards celebrate and honor the unique leadership influence of women in the local area. At this time, the WLC is seeking Women of Excellence nominations to recognize women for utilizing their talents and influence to make an impactful difference in our community through a project, partnership, or collaborative initiative.

Do you know a woman who:

- Is a Champion for Positive Change? She demonstrates ingenuity, energy, enthusiasm, and passion that has resulted in meaningful outcomes and positive changes for the community.
- Is a Contributing Force? She is a steady and reliable force that exhibits unwavering commitment and contributes to the success of those around her. She demonstrates integrity, dedication, determination, resilience, and a passion for giving back.
- Is an Influencer? She is seen as a mover and shaker within the community, a high achiever who has "opened doors" for other women. She serves as a role model for others and has shown leadership and vision resulting in meaningful impact on individuals and seen as an influencer among the community.

Recipients will be honored at the WLC's Women of Excellence Awards Luncheon on Friday, March 8, 2024. This special event is a tradition of the WLC to bring together women for inspiration and celebrate these award recipients.

Criteria to be addressed in submitting a nomination must include:

1. A description of the depth of her involvement and contributions of time, talent, and resources in the community or in business.
2. An explanation of how she generates significant positive impact on the local community through her endeavors.
3. Examples of how she demonstrates a passionate commitment to enhance opportunities for women in the local area through her activities.
